

Please do not weaken the No Call List Provisions afforded to New Jerseyans by their comprehensive State Law. Living in the most populated state in the US has unique and magnified challenges compared to other areas. In the past it was not unusual to have up to a dozen calls at diner time every day of the week. Now only November elections and the January beg season cause these annoyances.